REAL KITCHEN COMFORT Cool in Summer—Warm in Winter

DO YOU REALIZE THE FULL VALUE OF GAS? Are you enjoying to the utmost all the many conveniences of this fuel?

Many of our gas consumers—satisfied gas consumers—have not as yet realized the FULL VALUE of gas. They acknowledge its superiority over all other fuels, even when only partially taking advantage of its full value. If you are not in position to conveniently employ gas for all your cooking operations THE YEAR ROUND, you are economizing, neither in time, effort nor comfort: you are depriving yourself of a convenient luxury that is economical.

NOTE ILLUSTRATION AGAIN (Reproduced from an actual photograph.)

The ELEVATED GAS RANGE—only one of many styles to light it requires hardly a bend of the back.

The KITCHEN HEATER—the roominess, the racks in any position desired, the possibilities it offers to clean with very little effort, the warming closet above if you desire.

The BROILER—can you conceive anything more convenient? More and more people are choosing the healthful way of cooking meats. We will gladly tell you more about this.

The COOKING TOP—a giant burner, three medium burners, a simmering burner—a proper size burner for every purpose—economy.

Note the KITCHEN HEATER made a part of the range. It provides all necessary warmth for the winter, and quickly. Observe the gas kindler—simply a valve to turn and the papers, strings, sweepings, small refuse, etc., that accumulate in the fire box are burned at any convenient time: A coal or wood fire can be kindled with none of the usual preparations. It combines all of the winter comforts of the coal or wood stove you will eventually displace in only 13 inches of space and with none of the inconveniences. See one of these and the little water heater that needs no introduction—cheap to operate and always ready. They come in various styles.

Our Exchange Proposition

We want you to actually realize the FULL VALUE of gas fuel. To do so you must have the proper equipment. With an outfit, similar to that pictured above, in your own home you are enabled to enjoy to the utmost the full benefits of gas.

AS AN INDUCEMENT TO YOU TO MAKE THE NECESSARY CHANGE AT ONCE, WE ARE FOR A LIMITED TIME MAKING A SURPRISINGLY BIG ALLOWANCE FOR YOUR OLD COAL OR WOOD STOVE, TO APPLY ON THE PURCHASE PRICE OF NEW UP-TO-DATE EQUIPMENT NEATLY INSTALLED IN YOUR HOME.

We have other outfits and of every description. Every taste and every condition can be met and they range in price to fit your needs. Easy payments if you choose. Take the first step toward getting this allowance now—call our office—that's all. Learn more about this offer. It will pay you for many years to come.

AMERICA FIRST!

Now that war has been declared by Congress it is the duty of every citizen to support the President in this momentous crisis. Every one must be loyal to the flag, true to the principles of Americanism and ready to make any sacrifice for the success of the nation in the conflict. No matter what our sentiments may have been heretofore it is our bounden duty now to support the President and give him all the aid and encouragement possible. All should be united and present a solid front to the enemy. This is no time for bickering, no time for fault finding. All must rally to the flag, giving President Wilson and the country our united support and our lives and property if they may be needed in the conflict. With a united effort and a loyal citizenry let us hope and pray that the war will be of short duration and be a complete vindication of the American people.

THE WEEK'S EVENTS IN LOCAL CIRCLES

Redwood City as Seen Through Incidents Gathered Here and There

Mrs. John Diemann and little niece, Luella Millard, are at Auburn spending a few weeks with friends.

Miss Alice Hanson, a charming young lady from Salinas, is here on a brief visit with her aunt, Mrs. Jas. Curran.

Undersheriff H. W. Lampkin, who dislocated the ligaments of his right foot at the barbecue held at Beresford last Sunday, has discarded the crutches he has been using all week and is himself once again.

Following the fact that both Mr. and Mrs. Claude Fox have been confined at home with lagrippe during the past week, story No. 6 entitled "Hunting Reminiscences," which Mr. Fox writes for this paper, will not appear until next week's issue.

Mrs. D. E. Graham, well known club woman and society leader, was stricken with a severe illness at her home in the Highlands yesterday. Her relatives and friends are very much alarmed. Dr. J. P. H. Dykes was called to attend the patient.

Henry Boos of San Francisco is spending the weekend with his friend Henry Mengel. Mr. Boos holds a responsible position with the Standard Biscuit Company of San Francisco. Mr. Boos is recovering from a severe attack of typhoid fever.

Dr. J. L. Ross is using a Dodge car this week. Last week he was at Turlock and on his way home he collided with another car coming in the opposite direction at Petaluma. His Oldsmobile was badly damaged. It is now being repaired in a local garage.

The county board of education has been in session at the courthouse since Thursday and will continue in session until today. The members are engaged in examining the papers submitted by the eighth grade pupils of the grammar schools of the county. Should these eighth grade pupils receive the required credits they will not have to pass examinations to be conducted by the board next June.

The new hotel on Webster street will be formally opened next week. It is strictly an up-to-date hostelry with a splendid marine view and a no less beautiful mountain view. It will start with about ten guests who will remain from ten to sixty days. Mine host is a genial man and will make it as pleasant as possible for his guests who will come from all parts of the county.

C. M. Dossie and Rev. Stevens motored over to Pescadero last Sunday afternoon to make an investigation of the Congregational church there which has been closed for some time. Mr. Dossie is a member of the State Council of Congregational Churches whose province it is to establish missionaries and open edifices where needed. Both gentlemen are enthusiastic over the opening of the Pescadero church. They received every encouragement from citizens while at Pescadero.

Miss Grace Quinn, who spent the weekend with Miss Patricia Johnston, has departed for San Jose for a short visit. Miss Quinn is a teacher in the school department at Benecia. Her sister, Miss B. Quinn arrived here on Monday to remain for a short visit with her aunt, Mrs. Horace B. Gardner. The young lady teaches at Giant. She is engaged to Mr. Anderson, a prominent contractor of Oakland. She will continue teaching until the end of the school year when she will become the bride of Mr. Anderson.

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Louise Stevens, young daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Stevens of this city, and Wilbur Dossie, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dossie, was made this week. The wedding will most likely take place next June or at the end of the school year. Miss Stevens is a teacher in the local grammar school department while young Dossie is a teacher in the science department of the Lakeview High School in Tulare county. He is a bright young man and a graduate of the local high school and of Stanford. The pretty bride-to-be is very popular, with a wide circle of acquaintances and a teacher of much ability.

The Redwood City Sewing Club composed of the prominent young ladies of this city spent a pleasant few hours at the attractive home of Misses Pauline and Laura Hanson on Main street on Tuesday evening. After the sewing bee the hostesses served refreshments.

C. G. Landscheit, representing property owners of Wellesley Park, addressed the board of city trustees Monday evening asking that a date of hearing be set to discuss the formation of a district to purchase an extension of Duane street into Wellesley Park. The matter was placed in the hands of the street committee and a date of hearing will likely be set at the next meeting of the board.

The president and clerk of the board were instructed to sign a deed conveying to the C. A. Hooper Company that portion of Monroe street west of El Camino Real which was closed by ordinance in 1915. The Sierra Educational News, published in San Francisco, in the March issue contains a very complimentary article concerning Charles C. Hughes, a former employee of the Times-Gazette and a former well known resident of Redwood City. The article is as follows:

The superintendent of the city of Cleveland, Ohio, has been filled by the appointment of Dr. Frank E. Spaulding, superintendent at Minneapolis. The final choice was made from a group consisting of H. E. Morrison, state superintendent of New Hampshire; F. M. Hunter, superintendent of Lincoln, Nebraska; H. B. Wilson, superintendent, Topeka, Kansas; C. E. Chadsey, superintendent of Detroit, and Dr. Spaulding. Others given serious consideration were Superintendent R. J. Condon of Cincinnati, Wm. M. Davidson of Pittsburgh, J. H. Francis, Columbus, and Charles C. Hughes, Sacramento.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer refers to Mr. Hughes in complimentary terms. The board determined to choose no man as Superintendent whose schools were not visited by a committee. A committee could not be secured to visit Sacramento, the distance being too great. No one of the above mentioned men was a candidate. The consideration of Mr. Hughes is a deserved compliment to California and to himself. Superintendent Hughes' reports have been attracting wide attention.

SALE OF PROPERTY ON MAIN STREET

The E. J. Pringle property comprising five stores and having a frontage of 105 feet on Main street was sold yesterday to Newell Murdoch Co. of San Francisco for $25,000. The deed was filed in the recorder's office last evening. This is the largest price paid for Redwood City business property for many years. The deal was consummated by C. A. Chaquette, the Palo Alto real estate man with offices in San Francisco. The new purchaser of this choice realty is the owner of the Forest Hill restricted district property west of Twin Peaks tunnel in San Francisco. This big holding is now being developed by the company. The holdings on Main street were formerly the property of the late Sidney Mezes who at one time owned large tracts of land on the peninsula. Mr. Pringle is an nephew of the late capitalist and inherited the property. The sale is one of the biggest consummated in Redwood City for some years. The monthly income for the property is $165. The big price paid for this realty shows that good business property is in demand and will bring a fancy figure. It is possible that the new owner will tear down the present building and erect a modern structure of large dimensions. They are wealthy and have plenty ready cash to make the contemplated improvements.

GRATITUDE EXPRESSED FROM FAR AWAY FRANCE

Along last fall the ladies of this community collected a large number of comfort bags containing useful articles for wounded soldiers and sent them to the distressed in France. The ladies placed their cards in the bags. This week Mrs. M. E. Selzer received the following well-written letter from a soldier who secured the comfort bag she had sent with the others. The letter was written in the French language but Mrs. Selzer had it translated:

Paris, February 23rd, 1917.

Thanks, a thousand times, kind American lady for your generosity toward a wounded soldier of France.

Words cannot express the pleasure it gave me to open the bag filled with so many useful articles and bringing me also the fact that we have friends across the sea, friends who do not forget us.

It was during our glorious fight at Verdun towards the end of our offensive drive, that my arm was badly hurt by a fragment from a shell.

We are very well taken care of in our hospital here, besides our infirmarians, some American ladies are lavish with their presents.

My thoughts often travel toward my benefactress, and nothing would please me more than to send her a little souvenir, the work of my hands, if it were agreeable to her. While waiting for an answer, allow me to repeat the words: thanks again and again. Pierre Motel, 11th Artillery Regiment Hospital, 53 Chevreuse st., Paris.

MURRAY'S MOSQUITO BOYS

Oh, we're the ones who've vowed a vow, and vowed it loud and deep, it's a mighty little thing to say, and mighty big to keep.

But to this thing we've pledged our faith, to some lengths we've gone, to see mosquitoes shall not fly from Redwood City, on.

And, cheerfully, to keep the vow, we labor day by day, we are the Mosquito Boys, and we are always gay.

We've dug ditches in the marshes, with the water to our knees; there've been frogs we've roared, and days we'd nearly freeze.

We've thrown oil in wells and water troughs, and we've fed for our lives, to avoid the deadly broomstick, in the hands of angry flies.

"All in the day's work," we have thought, to cheer us on our way, for we are the Mosquito Boys, and we are always gay.

We're saddled up like donkeys, with a pack of sixty pounds, I tell you there's some hiking before we make our rounds!

But cheerfully we trudge along, nor mind the weary miles, while we sweat and eat together and groan, and yet we keep on smiling. It is the only way.

For we are the Mosquito Boys, and we are always gay.

The work that we've engaged in, is always MORE, not less, if you want and need, they're overpaying us, you've got another treat.

Our hand is welded to the plough, and anything we'll dare, that mosquitoes may not follow the prices in the air.

So rest at ease and know that we are in the fight to stay, for we are the Mosquito Boys, and we are always gay.

—Ida Alexander.

Sylvester Dignam and Miss Lucy Martin, formerly of Menlo Park, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. R. J. Martin, in San Francisco last Monday evening, Rev. J. Turner officiating. Mrs. D. Ryan, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor and appeared in a pink and blue dress that was very becoming to the young matron. Miss Constance Hutchinson, the pretty cousin of the bride, acted as bridesmaid while Arthur Waldo was the "best man" and gave the bride in the keeping of the blushing groom. After the impressive ceremony supper was enjoyed by the intimate friends of the bride and groom at a down town cafe. Mr. and Mrs. Dignam are enjoying their honeymoon in the southern part of the state. Misses Edith and Cecelia Carleton, schoolmates of Mrs. Dignam, attended the wedding. The latter caught the bride's bouquet and tradition has it that the young lady who catches a bouquet at a wedding ceremony is herself to be a bride in a short time. Of course, the young lady in this case modestly insists that there will be an exception to the old tradition that has come down from the ages and that has existed long before little "Cupid" came into the spot light.

Duff and Doyle Hall was crowded to the doors last Saturday evening with citizens and taxpayers to hear the report of the fire commissioners, A. G. C. Hahn, C. W. Marwedel and C. R. Walters. Major Walters presided at the meeting with dignity and G. L. Grollard acted as secretary. A. G. C. Hahn, president of the commission, was spokesman for his colleagues, detailing a complete report of the commission until the present time. The report showed that the commissioners were economical in the expenditure of funds intrusted to them and worked for the very best interests of the district. Mr. Hahn showed where the commissioners had saved the sum of $1100 in the purchase of the fire engine and apparatus. They spent much time in securing the latest and best fire apparatus for the district. The amount of money received from the first installment of taxes was $9819.87 and the sum paid out was $4601. Contracts awarded in addition to the amount already paid out was $4291.50. It was estimated that the cost of 50 hydrants would cost $3,000 and that the expenses of the department for the current year would amount to $1700. Mr. Marwedel and Mr. Walters supplemented Mr. Hahn's report by verbal accounts of the work done and the many difficulties overcome by the commission in its effort to secure the best equipment for the department. On motion of W. B. Weir the commissioners were given a rising vote of thanks for their good work. F. A. Reynolds, North Palo Alto attorney, asked numerous questions of Mr. Hahn and the latter readily answered them to his satisfaction. A call was made at the meeting for volunteer firemen and a great many young men signed the roll. Every fireman who appears at a drill will be paid one dollar and two dollars at a parade and he also will be paid for attending a fire. Much enthusiasm was manifested at the meeting concerning the new fire department. At the meeting the three commissioners announced their candidacy for election on Monday, the time set for the contest. The opposing candidates were, John B. Welsh, Jos. Kelly and John W. Morey. The election on Monday was hotly contested by all parties. Every vote in the fire district was brought out. 435 ballots were cast. Of this number A. G. C. Hahn received 298, C. W. Marwedel 293, C. R. Walters 286, John W. Morey 126, J. B. Welsh 126 and Jos. Kelly 114. The defeated candidates are all highly esteemed young gentlemen who would have made excellent officials but in as much as the old commissioners had not completed the organization of the department the voters thought best to let them complete their work before making a change.
